NO MORE CATARRH.

T. F. Laurens Will Not Allow it to Exist in Astoria.

"There will be no more catarrh in Astoria," says T. F. Laurin, "unless people fail to follow the law of common sense."

T. F. Laurin makes this statement because of the great success that has followed the use of Hyomei in the treatment of catarrhal troubles. So positive is this treatment in quick relief and permanent cure that he sells it under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it does not do all that is claimed for it.

There is no other treatment or medicine for catarrhal troubles that is at all like Hyomei. It follows nature's plan in curing diseases of the throat and lungs by bringing healing medication right to the very spot where the disease germs exist. With this treatment, health-giving oils and balsams are breathed through a neat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, so that every breath you take while using Hyomei is a breath of healing air. It kills all catarrhal germs and prevents their growth, so that the cure is thorough and permanent.

Remember that Hyomei is sold under a guarantee to cost nothing unless it cures. If you have any catarrhal trouble, you should take advantage of T. F. Laurin's liberal offer.

MESMER, THE WONDER.

The audience at the Star Theater last night was amused as well as entertained by the funny actions of those whom Mesmer made do things.

One young man was made to kill snakes, another one was trying to catch fish from off a lady's hat in the front row and before the week is out, some of our citizens will imagine they are Rockefeller, Carnegies or Pierpont Morgans, especially if they attend Herman Wise's 21st anniversary bargain sale, where a man will be able to buy a $20 suit for about $10 and save nearly $10 or where you may secure an overcoat and a hat and a pair of pants for the price of the overcoat. Oh, you won't need to be mesmerized to secure bargains; the Wise Bargain Fest, is the real thing, sure enough.

CLEVER CAPTURE AT ASTORIA'S CIRCUIT COURT

PRIVATE WELLS, A PRISONER WHO WAS SERVING SENTENCE, ATTACKS SENTRY, BUT WAS FINALLY OVERPOWERED—MAKES ESCAPE BUT IS AGAIN CAUGHT.

A general court martial was called to meet at Fort Stevens on Thursday last and it was only made known yesterday the cases that came before it. Several important cases came up and the findings of the court will be sent to Vancouver, Wash., for approval. An Astorian reporter heard one case that appears to be interesting. It was a very clever piece of work on the part of all concerned.

On August 29th, Private Ernest F. Wells, of the 34th Co. C. A. C., who is a prisoner at Fort Stevens serving an eighteen month's sentence for desertion, made an attack on the sentry guarding him while at work with a fellow prisoner hauling rubbish from the post to the beach.

After overpowering the sentry, he tried to wrench the rifle from the sentry's hands, but at the guard's call on the other prisoner for help, Wells was in turn overpowered and ordered to take his place in rear of the cart. The sentry thought the trouble was over but the prisoner evidently thought otherwise for he dodged between the cart and the guard and made his escape into the dense jungles between the post and the beach. Three shots were fired after him in an unsuccessful attempt to stop him.

The sentry then returned to the guardhouse with the other prisoner and reported the escape to the Sergeant of the Guard.

Captain Willis, who was with his company at drill, was immediately notified and brought his company in at once, armed them and stretched a cordon along the Engineers R. R. track, from the post to the old Point Adams light-house. The rest of the company were then sent into the jungles between the track and the beach to locate the refugee if possible. Two men were also on watch at Point Adams, to keep him from getting away down the beach towards Seaside.

Sergeant Sidney O. Logan, observer at the Primary Station at Battery Clark, was in the Range Finding Station and saw the whole affair. He reported it at once to Captain Steel who was in the battery and the immediately started out to assist in the hunt.

First Sergeant Henry M. Sellinger, Sergeant Norman W. Stanton and Corporal William Hocking heard of the escape and also started out in search of him. They did not reach the ground until the other men had started into the brush, so took up the search on their own account.

In their search they came across what seemed to be a one man trail and followed it up. They had gone only a short distance along this trail, when it seemingly came to an end. A small hole was noticed in the undergrowth, however, and they decided to go a little further and see what it was and where it led to. Sergeant Stanton was in the lead and they all three were on their hands and knees. They had gone only a short distance when Stanton found the imprint of a knee in the marshy ground. A few feet further on he found a hat cord and about a yard and a half further he found the prisoner, snugly concealed beneath a fallen tree. The trio then brought him out of the brush, took him into the guard-house and, after three hours of liberty, the prisoner was back in confinement again.

The following letter of appreciation is in regard to the affair was sent to the men who successfully brought the search to a close.

Ft. Stevens, Oregon,
Sept. 2nd, 1907.

Captain Harry L. Steel,
Commanding 93rd Co. C. A. C.
Ft. Stevens, Oregon.

Sir:—

The Commanding Officer directs me to express his appreciation of the service rendered by you and the Non-Commissioned Officers of your company (First Sergeant Sellinger, Sergeant Stanton and Corporal Hocking), in re-capturing Private Ernest M. Wells, 34th Co. C. A. C., after he had hidden in the dense jungles west of the post.

Sergeant Logan also deserves credit for his prompt report of the occurrence as seen by him from the Range Finding Station.

Very respectfully,
(Signed) Benj. H. Kerfoot,
1st Lieut. C. A. C. Adjutant.

OPENING OF SEPTEMBER TERM—CIVIL AND CRIMINAL CASES DISPOSED OF—JURY EXCUSED ONE WEEK.

The September term of the circuit court was called yesterday afternoon. Judge McBride, Clerk Clinton, District Attorney Hedges and Sheriff Pomeroy were present.

The court was crowded with attorneys, clients and the called jury, and all seemed to take quite an interest in the proceedings.

After Judge McBride had gone over the docket he took up the cases in their order and set the time for hearing cases that were ready for trial.

In the case of Julius Wilbur, Wm. Stewart, alias Wm. Grant, and Mabel Grant, Assistant District Attorney McCue, in the absence of District Attorney Hedges, who had left the court room, asked for a dismissal of the case which was granted and the bonds of the defendants' bondsmen were released.

The case of C. Roy Fox who was charged with taking a minor to a house of ill fame was brought up by Mr. McCue asking for a dismissal, as in the former case. This was also granted and the bail of defendant was ordered returned.

The District Attorney had previously stated to the court that he would not be ready to try the several criminal cases until Monday next as he desired to question witnesses and prepare his cases.

The jury was then excused until Monday, September 23rd, at 1 p. m. J. E. Campbell, C. G. Palmberg, Olof Erickson and Howard Lewis were excused as jurors for the term and A. G. Miller was excused until September 24th. The following civil cases were called and disposed of as follows:

Bridget Grant et al vs. O. R. & U. Co., ordered that mandate be entered.

Andrew Hansen vs. Mary Hansen, divorce denied.

Seaside Spruce Lumber Co. vs. H. A. Stiles et al; settled and dismissed.

Fred Reames vs. Arthur E. Petersen; dismissed.

Lewis D. Heaton vs. the Oregon Timber & Lumber Co.; settled and dismissed.

Dan J. Ingalls vs. E. O. Newell; settled and dismissed.

H. C. Thompson vs. S. L. Irish et al; demurrer stricken out and default entered.

C. W. Fulton vs. A. & C. R. R. Co.; settled and dismissed.

Katie Gantz vs. Constantine Gauntz; dismissed.

Ross, Higgins & Co. vs. John Lettiere; default.

C. C. Rosenberg vs. Isaac Hansen and Hilda Hansen; default and judgment.

John P. Lewitz vs. Agnes Lewitz; default.

Hoban & Taggart vs. Erick Mannula et al; set for trial Tuesday, September 24th.

Portland Credit Association vs. C. M. Cuthbert; settled and dismissed.

Wm. J. Barber vs. Mary Barber; default.

Kenney & Gribler vs. Chas. F. Wise; set for trial September 23rd.

Frances Warin vs. Henry Warin; default.

Martha Dunbar vs. Oron L. Dunbar; default.

John Hahn vs. Astoria National Bank demurrer to complaint argued and taken under advisement.

The court then adjourned until this morning at 10 o'clock.

What One Enjoys.

At Otto Sund's pretty and cozy resort "The Commercial," one finds all that the inner man desires in the refreshment line and of the best quality too. To pass a little time in such a neat place and spend it in pleasant conversation with genial friends, probably a little business talk, is, to say the least, enlivening. Courteous treatment is another thing that is appreciated and one receives it from Otto himself who takes charge during the day and from his pleasant night manager both of whom dispense the best to be had. "The Commercial," 509 Commercial street, is well known and widely patronized.

The Palace Restaurant.

The Palace Restaurant has reached the point of being recognized as the standard of epicurean excellence in this city. No one leaves the dining rooms disappointed, it matters little how particular they may be in what they eat. Business of late has increased considerably and Arthur Smith, the genial boniface, has been compelled to employ additional help to keep up with the demand on his establishment. Long waits are not the thing at the Palace and speed and neatness in attending customers is a specialty at this restaurant.
